Dear Sir/Madam,

Bus Shelter, The Village Green, Hurstpierpoint

We are writing to inform you that Historic England has received an application to add the above building to the List of Buildings of Special Architectural or Historic Interest. We understand that you are the owner of the Bus Shelter, The Village Green, Hurstpierpoint and are therefore writing to you as a courtesy to explain what this means.

The Secretary of State for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport asked us to advise on the application in our role as the Government's statutory adviser on the historic environment. We have completed an initial assessment of the building, based on the material provided in the application, but without any further investigation or a visit. The Secretary of State has considered our advice and recommendation, and has decided not to take the application forward to a full assessment. The building will therefore not be added to the List at this time.

If the building had been put forward for a full assessment you would of course have been consulted and your comments would have been taken into account in any decision on whether the building should be listed.

The reasons for this decision are set out in our report, which will be published on the Heritage Gateway website in order to provide clarity about the building's designation status. Please click on the link below to download a copy of the report:

The website makes it clear that the buildings and sites included on the Heritage Gateway are mostly privately owned and are not open to the public.

If you consider that this decision has been wrongly made you may contact the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport within 28 days of the date of this letter to request that the Secretary of State review the decision. An example of a decision made wrongly would be where there was a factual error or an irregularity in the process which affected the outcome. You may also ask the Secretary of State to review the decision if you have any significant evidence relating to the special architectural or historic interest of the building which was not previously considered. Further details of the review criteria and process and how to request a review are contained in the annex to this letter.

More information about designation can also be found on our website at www.historicengland.org.uk.

Yours sincerely

Aidan Misselbrook

Annex 1

Review Criteria and Process

A review will only be carried out in the following circumstances:

(1) there is evidence that the original decision has been made wrongly. Examples would include:

- where there was a factual error, eg. the wrong building was listed; or
- where there has been some irregularity in the process which has affected the outcome, eg. relevant considerations were not taken into account or irrelevant considerations were taken into account.

(2) there is significant evidence which was not previously considered, relating to the special architectural or historic interest of the building, as set out in the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990. An example would be where new evidence relating to the date of a building has been discovered which might make a material difference to the architectural or historic interest of the building.

Having conducted a review, the Secretary of State will either affirm or overturn the original decision. It is important to understand that the original decision will stand until the Secretary of State has made a decision on whether the original decision should be affirmed or overturned. If the original decision is overturned, this will not have retrospective effect.
